THE POWER AND PURPOSE OF PEER MENTORSHIP

About the Workshop

The workshop will cover the power and purpose of peer mentorship in the lives of sex trafficking survivors, as well as introduce Voice Found's new Ethical Peer Support certification course for folks with lived experience.

Ethical Peer Support is a comprehensive training and implementation program for organizations and individuals working with people who've been trafficked, sexually exploited, or experienced childhood sexual abuse and are using (or wanting to use) peer support as part of their service delivery.

About the Presenter (s)

Sarah Tunstall

Anti-human trafficking Case Manager at Voice Found

Sarah uses her lived experience to provide peer mentorship to survivors of human trafficking. Sarah supports survivors in second stage healing after exiting exploitation and has a strong passion for identity exploration, survivor led programming, and creative expression. Sarah is also an educator for the 'Ethical Peer Support Training', a new program launched by Voice Found to train and support those with lived experience who are ready and looking to use their experiences to support others
