About RESET Society of Calgary

Through immediate rapid exit, safe supportive housing, and one-on-one intensive case management, RESET supports women as young as 16, with or without children, as they exit from sexual exploitation.

Each RESET Participant progresses through three stages of programming in order to support healing, promote growth, and transition to independence.

In 2018, we founded the Sexual Exploitation & Trafficking Awareness (SETA) Conference to increase inter-agency collaboration and empower organizations to share expertise in support of survivors and their families.

We look forward to bringing delegates from across North America to Calgary this year for this incredible event.

Feedback from Past SETA Conferences

“Great Conference!!!”

“The speakers with lived and cross generational experience were so impactful and memorable.”

“It is exciting to go to a conference where you are able to put your learnings and new connections into practice right away in your day to day work.”

“I can’t wait to bring everything from the SETA Conference back to my team to continue our learning together!”
